

This month was my last month as an AIMER to Uruguay...

We finished off last month by having a fellowship night where we drank mate, ate hotdogs and snacks, and celebrated birthdays.

We attended a monthly conference in Montevideo. The community, worship, and word of God was touching.

I taught Sunday School three times this month. We learned about the fruit of the spirit, Jonah, and Daniel and the lions den. Whenever I see the joy in each child's eyes after Sunday school I'm so proud that we could make church a place where they want to be each week.

I preached twice in November. Both sermons went well and I am proud of the growth that I have made between teaching my first midweek Bible Study and now. Each time gets a little easier, longer, and (I hope) more effective.

My last Sunday in Uruguay the Sunday school children presented me with a handmade sign

The next day the Palmas took me to the airport and I said my last goodbyes

The last four months have been full of life changing experiences and perspectives. My time has been full of learning how to live in another culture, meeting new people, seeing new sights, and ministering. The people have been so kind and understanding and it is an honor to have met them. I have gained skills here that I know I will use for the rest of my life and it is a delight to be able to say that I gained them in Uruguay.

A special thank you to the Palma missionary family for being so kind and allowing me to be here. I am so proud to be called one of your AIMERS ❤️

Thank you to Fiona. It was amazing working with you and becoming your friend ❤️

Thank you to all of you for your support and love. ❤️
