

November in Namibia

Kristen Magallanes

The month of November welcomed me warmly in the country of South Africa The month of November welcomed me warmly in the country of South Africa alongside missionary family for the All Africa Missionary Conference. Followed by the Missionary Retreat, we were greatly encouraged by the inspiring teaching throughout the week and fellowship with some dear friends! I was given the opportunity to minister in music and song with my brother and our fellow Angolan missionary kids for a couple of the services.

As we made our way back to Namibia, we attended the Ladies Conference where Sister Elizabeth Ikerd spoke a beautiful and timely message.

The days between an eventful beginning & the holidays were spent homeschooling with my brothers & attending the village churches here in Northern Namibia.

At the church in the village of Oshikwiyu, three received the gift of the Holy Spirit for the first time and many were refilled that day. We thank God for what He's doing in people's lives and that He inhabits in the midst of the praises of His people. In light of the season of thankfulness, our PIMs stand at the forefront of our prayers this Thanksgiving. My family & I have experienced firsthand the blessings that come from their continuous support.

In addition, we are so thankful that after searching we were able to end the month with a turkey on our table to celebrate Thanksgiving this year! It is simple things like this that bring so much joy during the holidays on the field. May God bless you this holiday season!
