Happy New Year!

I hope you all had a blessed New Year and were able to celebrate with friends and family!

Once again, living downtown has it's perks! I was able to see fireworks on both sides of me from my balcony, Bucharest puts on quite a show! I stayed in, worked on a Meowna Lisa puzzle, (Mona Lisa holding a cat 🐱) had a cup of tea and listened to an audio book to keep me awake until fireworks!

1

NEW CHURCH

Opened in Brăila, we are so thankful!

2

LOVING GLOVES

To give to those in need

3

UP NEXT

There are exciting things ahead!

Fireworks

Fireworks are one of my favorite things, I loved the show!

Puzzle

I enjoyed this, but it was challenging with all the black and blue colors!

Pink Shoe Crew

Quite a few of us all wore pink shoes on the same day!

Brăila Biserica Penticostală Unită

Brăila United Pentecostal Church

January 11 was such an exciting day, another church in Romania was opened! We currently have around ten contacts there, four were first time visitors that Sunday! We had a beautiful ribbon cutting ceremony and there was such a sweet presence of the Lord there. Brăila is a city of 154,686 people about three hours north of Bucharest, pray that more will come to know the Lord through this church.

Loving Gloves

Outreach through giving

We had about fifty pairs of gloves with invites and a sweet treat attached to hand out to those in need. There are quite a few homeless people, especially downtown, so this was a wonderful way to reach out to our community.

Protests at the block I live on

There were quite a few protests in the month of January, a lot is going on politically in Romania. Being downtown has its perks... but I'm also in the middle of everything. There was a protest of 150,000, the largest protest since the protest that overthrew communism in 1989. They're protesting promised raises that haven't come to pass, the annulment and extreme delay of the presidential election, taxes, rising grocery and metro prices, on and on. Please pray for resolution and peace, and open doors to minister during this time.

Upcoming Events & Prayer Points

The effectual fervent prayer...

For the month of March, our missions team will be traveling each weekend to different cities in Romania; Brăila, Piatra-Neamt, Cluj and Timișoara. Our goal is to evangelize and make new contacts, as well as encourage those we are currently connected to. Please pray for these cities, for safe travels, for the Lord to go before us and put us in the path of the hungry, and lift up and renew our current contacts.

If you would like to donate towards this cause, please see my link at the end of the email, or send me a message! We want lives to be changed in Jesus name and would appreciate your partnership in this special initiative!
